Unit content

This section provides guidance on the recommended knowledge and skills required to enable you to achieve each of the learning outcomes in this unit. Your tutor/assessor will ensure you have the opportunity to cover all of the unit content.

Outcome 1: Recognise that you have rights and responsibilities as an individual

Individual rights: Definition of a right (something you are entitled to under the law, something everyone should have), identifying individual rights (e.g. suitable living conditions, access to education and healthcare, the right to vote, freedom of expression, freedom to follow your own culture and religion), identifying legal rights (e.g. employment laws, equal opportunities), identifying special rights of children (e.g. to be protected from harm or abuse).

Own responsibilities: Definition of a responsibility (something you should do because it is the law or because it is your duty as a person), identifying self responsibilities (e.g. knowing what your rights are, keeping yourself and your possessions safe, taking care of your health, getting help or advice if you have problems).

Who could help: Legal (e.g. solicitors, police), Citizens Advice Bureau, local authority, local Member of Parliament, charities, telephone help lines, teacher or tutor.
